What Are People Saying About WBKPC?

"To all of our friends in America and around the world, I want to take a moment to acknowledge Miss Nkiyasi Helm as an accomplished author and motivational speaker. Her diligence and desire to positively impact the fight against obesity and bullying is a beacon in our global community. As the CEO of Trimland and author of The Chubby Conqueror it warms my heart to see a child charging ahead on worldly issues. Much success Nkiyasi!" Amos Knoll CEO of Trimland and author of "The Chubby Conqueror"

"Nkiyasi Helm exemplifies the Kuumba principle of Kwanzaa: To always do as much as we can, in a way we can in order to leave our community more beautiful and beneficial than when we inherited it. Miss Helm's desire to inspire other students to write books makes our community a better place for children to express themselves in a positive way." By Sonya Hollins, editor@comvoicesonline.com

"It is my pleasure to write you this recommendation of Miss Nkiyasi Helm, as a worthy and gifted motivational presenter on issues pertaining to at-risk youth. The struggles facing youth today are often overwhelming and good decision making is not a characteristic many at-risk students can claim. Nkiyasi is certainly a role model and has a unique ability to break down barriers to connect quickly with her story and positive example." D. Powers, Principal Baldwin Street Middle School Hudsonville Public Schools

"It was a pleasure meeting you and Nkiyasi, and for your support at the 3rd Annual WE Kids Health, Wellness & Fitness EXPO! Nkiyasi presentation and attendance was commendable, and I know that many EXPO attendees were introduced to an amazing young author and entrepreneur as a result."
Barbara Price, (Faith) Director Okemos Modeling & Entertainment Group

“Mrs. Obama greatly values the important work being done all across the country and she wishes you continued success with your efforts.” The White House

About WBKPC

Have you ever wanted to be an author or illustrator? Don't Wait Start Now! Let Miss Nkiyasi and her team lead you down the path of authorship, the Written By Kids way.

Writtenbykids.com began October 9th, 2012 with a kid and a dream. At that time 10 year old Nkiyasi Helm decided to fulfill her dream of becoming an author. Initially her writing and illustrating began as a hobby and soon led to writing with a purpose. If you ask Nkiyasi why she likes to write so much "it's like TV in your head" she responds. I write to help other people gain a different perspective "a kid's perspective on issues that youth are faced with today."

Now Nkiyasi wants to provide the same opportunity to other young people by assisting them in the development of their own books, illustrations and provide the means to share them with a broader audience. The (Standing Together To Resist Bullying) STTRB Program helps make this possible for many well deserving children.

Miss Nkiyasi recently teamed up with her parents, sisters and brother to form Writtenbykids.com, a publishing company that provides many publishing related services. Our leadership includes

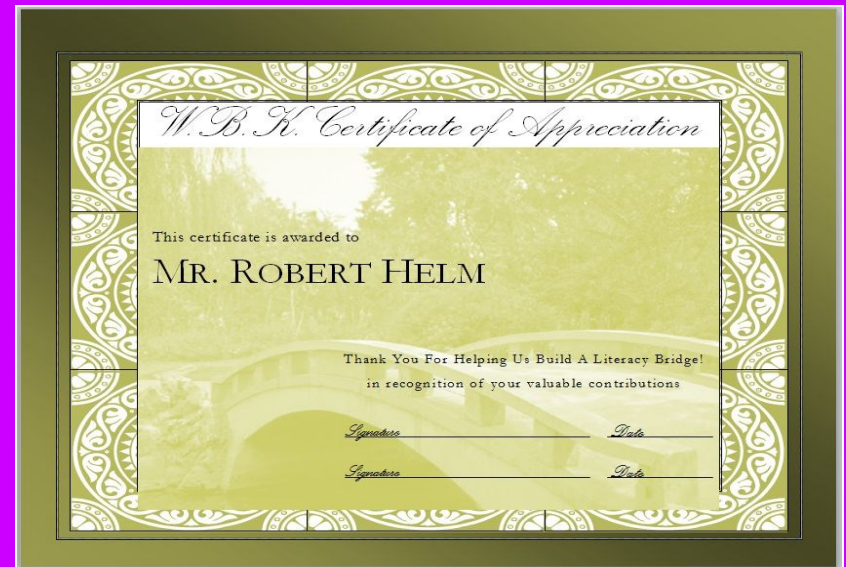

Dr. Lindiwe Mhlongo Helm who is committed to children's learning. Dr. Lindiwe taught K-6 and has always emphasized teaching children critical thinking skills, technology, science and encouraged children to express themselves by writing. Dr. Lindiwe is an emulating example, after getting a BA in business she got her masters in science administration/leadership and a doctorate in public health.

Mr. Robert Helm has over fifteen years' experience as an entrepreneur, and brings a plethora of experience in strategic planning, marketing, product development, graphic design and sales. He works closely with Miss Nkiyasi as the editor and chief of Writtenbykids.com. Nkiyasis' siblings are also an integral part of the children's book publishing process. They are content reviewers and even offer insight on colorful illustrations. We like to call them our talent base! All of their contributions come together to form the Written By Kids approach to writing.

Message to WBKPC Sponsor from the CEO

Greetings WBKPC Sponsor,

Thank you for your interest in supporting Written By Kids Publishing Company and the STTRB program. Your contribution will go a long way to help children express themselves through writing and illustration. It will also help make it possible for me to continue to mentor and motivate children individually and as a group. I spend a large portion of my time reading, talking and teaching others around me.

After reviewing our Sponsorship Matrix, please feel free to contact our office directly with your support or contribution.

Sincerely,

Standing Together To Resist Bullying (STTRB) WBK Tax I.D. 46-1141482

Standing Together To Resist Bullying (STTRB), this is a phrase coined by WBKPC. It represents our outlook on positively stomping out bullying, using love as a unified group (see Bully A Bully With Love pg. #9). This concept is meant to collectively develop positive reading materials for children, produce by other children from their own perspectives.

Written By Kids Publishing Company's mission is to produce, promote and distribute quality kids reading materials that positively speak directly to issues facing our youth today. These stories usually originate from real life experiences, and are meant to provide positive methods of understanding, discussing and dealing with similar issues that they may be faced with.

A portion of each contribution made to WBKPC through sponsorship or donation goes to the (STTRB) program these funds are used to make it possible for children that may have difficulty affording fees or services associated with publishing a book or illustration. We support young authors and illustrators by providing workshops, mentoring, newsletters, free books, contests, story telling and other activities that promote and emulate our mission.

For more information on how to become a supporter to The STTRB Program please, visit our website at www.writtenbykids.com (or see page 22 in this catalog)

Nkiyasi Helm enjoys writing and illustrating books that speak directly to social issues that children are faced with today. These children's books are available in English and Spanish. They discuss issues such as Bullying, Obesity, Morals and Ethical decision making. In an effort to promote this material, Nkiyasi teamed up with her family and developed Writtenbykids.com publishing com-

For Schools

Written By Kids Publishing Company offers two great options to support your existing literacy and anti-bullying programs. Additionally, we also supply books to non-profits and educational institution at a discounted rate.

- Option #1: “Finding The Story In You” This is a 3 week program that teaches children how to plan, write and illustrate their very own story. The purpose of this program is to guide children down the path of authorship, while simultaneously focusing the content of their stories around a specific subject determined by you. Upon completion of this program parents and participants can choose to have their story published and printed in a hard copy form. If a story meets our STTRB criteria it could be featured in this catalog as part of our promotion to raise money for WBKPC scholarships. Qualified Participants may be eligible to receive WBKPC scholarships.
- Option #2: We provide interactive storytelling with a purpose, followed up by a question and an answer session. We use pre-approved Written By Kids materials that relate to current and specific social issues created by kids from their own perspectives, to educate and motivate young people. This serves as a great dialog opener and the content can be modified for the appropriate age, reading and comprehension level for grades K-12.

Storytellers

Storytelling is a 'past-time' that was, and is crucial to the development of youth and adults. Historically many cultures passed down very important advice through story telling, and WBKPC desires to do the same thing. Our storytellers engage children by using funny voices and props to make it an interactive and memorable experience. This style of storytelling is ideal for children Pre-K through 3rd grade but it can benefit children of all ages. The books we read cover an array of very relevant topics that children and adults can benefit from. Many of these book have discussion questions at the end of the story, that are meant to focus the discussion on specific topics like Bullying and making good choices. Join hands today with WBKPC and help restore justice to bullied children through literacy. Be sure to take a moment to complete our storyteller feedback form!

Why WBKPC?

Here at WBKPC we recognize that reading is vital a part of our entire life. You've heard it said many times before "If you want to live long, you must keep your brain strong!"

Therefore, we promote long term involvement in children's lives through literacy. We challenge you to allow WBKPC to be a part of your child's life. Our strategy goes a like this: We recommended reading to children from the ages 0 - 4, then from 5-8 do interactive storytelling, at 9 - 13 read and discuss, and finally 14 - 18 read and discuss in-depth while using relevant real life examples.

Our experience with using this method and our reading material, has taught us that everyone has something to offer and something to learn, hence the importance of these discussion being shared with both children and adults.
